

BACK TO SCHOOL & BACK TO LEARNING WITH AN ENDORSEMENT FROM SEDC IN FALL '23

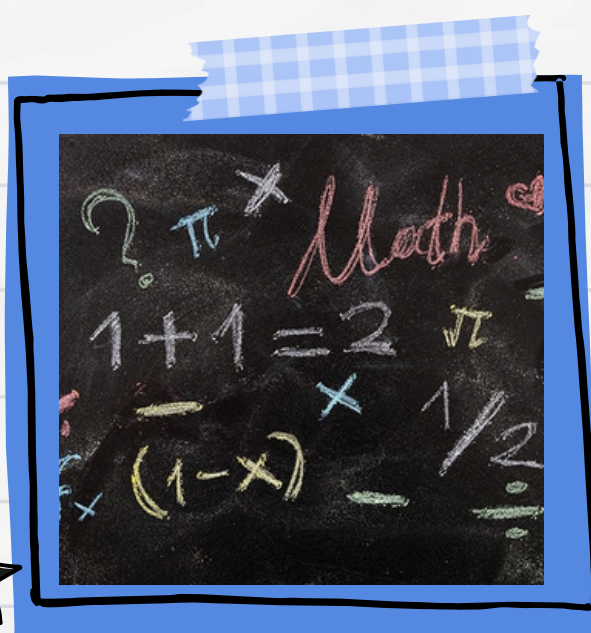

ELEMENTARY MATH

K-8 EDUC 5520 Algebraic Reasoning for Practitioners. This is the third course in a new cohort. You are welcome to take this course even if you did not take the first two courses. This endorsement is recognized by USBE and is in cooperation with Utah Valley University. sedck12.org/fall23math

MATH SPECIALIST

EDUC 5560: Curriculum Instruction & Assessment for Elementary Math Leaders. This is the first of two courses in a new cohort. There are only two required classes for this endorsement after you have completed the Elementary Math endorsement. sedck12.org/fall23mathspecial

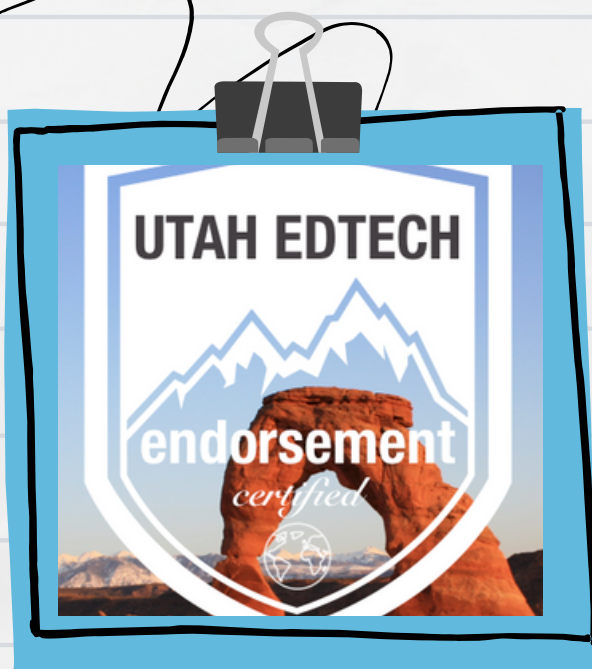

INSTRUCTIONAL COACHING

EDUC 5412: Adult Learning Theory. This is the first course of three in a new cohort. Teachers are welcome to join a cohort at anytime. Courses do not need to be taken in any particular order. sedck12.org/fall23adultlearning

GIFTED & TALENTED

EDUC 5600 Learning Development and Individual Learning Differences in Gifted Education & EDUC 520R Differentiation with 21st Century Skills. Anyone interested in the endorsement can begin now. This is the beginning of a new cohort. The endorsement can be completed in just one year! sedck12.org/fall23gifted

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY

The EdTech Endorsement Program (ETEP) is now following the new competency-based model adopted by USBE in July 2023. Join the new asynchronous Core courses anytime! Or, are you are just looking to brush up on or learn some new skills? The next round of online EdTech courses from SEDC are now open for registration. The first set begins on September 7th, and the second set on November 2nd. sedck12.org/fall23etep
